

BIRMINGHAM TOURS CARDINAL NEWMAN BUS TOUR

Newman's beatification was officially proclaimed by Pope Benedict XVI on 19th September 2010 during his visit to the United Kingdom. Highlighting the wonderful architecture and history of the city, we celebrate the life of Cardinal Newman in Birmingham. Following the road to the north side of the city a picture is painted of life for John Henry Newman when he lived in Oscott and Maryvale. Passing the Catholic cathedral we enter the unique Jewellery Quarter which really emphasises why Birmingham was known as the city of a thousand trades in Victorian times. Picking up Broad Street we then take the highway to Edgbaston to discover the Tolkien trail and the world famous Cardinal Newman Oratory. Finally entering the city from the east side passing St Anne's Church in Alcester Street we get the full panoramic view of St Martin's Parish Church.

The guided tour lasts approximately one and a half hours and is totally flexible in terms of timing and meeting point. Link this tour with some refreshment and finish with a curry or fish and chip supper at a venue of your choice. Link this tour with a visit to the Cardinal Newman Oratory and to add an extra special dimension try your quiz for the evening – the Big Brum Buz and So you think you know Birmingham Challenge Quiz.
